Good afternoon,

Please can someone confirm who is responsible for processing invoices BPL37188 & BPL39092?

These are now considerably overdue (dating back to Feb & March), and our team has been told that the invoices are with the Planning team at Brighter Places 'to action'.

As far as we've been made aware, there isn't anything outstanding on our side to prevent payment.

Understandably, we're under pressure from our own Accounts team to receive payment for these invoices. Please note, it's standard procedure for us to introduce late fees for anything over 7 days overdue.

If you can please provide an update ASAP that'd be really appreciated, otherwise I will be forced to send updated invoices detailing the accrued interest in the coming days.

Thanks and regards,
Olivia

Hi Pete

This is a long shot, do you have an applicable EICR, gas cert, signed plan and pictures of the kitchen? As we need this to pay for the kitchen, I understand this most likely wasn't asked of you before you started, but if you can come back to me with as much as you can, I will push it through—Kinema house. I will get approved for payment in the next 30 minutes.

Thanks,
Ricky

Hi Ricky

Thanks for getting back to me on this

No electrical or gas work was carried out for this order, it was a like for like swap of cabinetry and work tops only so we wouldn't have an EICR or gas certificate. I can supply the plans for the kitchen design / layout though if that would speed things up?

Appreciate you pushing this for us

All the best

Hi both - apologies, I'm not sure who the best person is to follow up on these payments?

Unfortunately we've still not had any remittance for either invoice, please can I check they've been approved and are possibly sitting with your accounts team to be paid?

Thanks & happy Friday!

Good morning James

Unfortunately we still have not received payment for the two overdue invoices or any further explanation as to why these have not been paid.

I would appreciate a response on this matter today please and if you could send a contact number for yourself or a colleague that I could discuss this matter with it would be much appreciated.

Ricky, I appreciate that this does not sit with you but I will try to call you today as I do not have any other telephone numbers for your colleagues.

I look forward to hearing from you soon so that we can wrap this matter up.

All the best
